THE preliminary edition of the Walpole-Dalrymple correspondence was made by Dr Andrew G. Hoover, now of Oberlin College, from the manuscripts at Farmington, and was presented in 1939 to the faculty of the Yale Graduate School in candidacy for the Ph.D. degree. This unpublished dissertation, written under the direction of Professor Tinker, forms the basis of our edition of those letters.

The following institutions and private owners have kindly permitted us to print manuscripts in their possession: the British Museum; Mr Frederick Coykendall, New York City; Mr Basil Cozens-Hardy, Norwich; Sir Mark Dalrymple, Bt, of Newhailes; Mrs Colin Davy, Heckfield House, Basingstoke, Hants; the 13th Earl of Derby; the Edinburgh University Library; the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge; Mr Lindsay Fleming, Aldwick Grange, Bognor Regis, Sussex; the Percival Merritt Collection, Harvard College Library; the Liverpool Public Libraries; the Hon. Mrs Rosalind Lyell, Cranmer Court, Chelsea; the Pierpont Morgan Library; Prinknash Abbey, Glos; the National Library of Scotland; the Henry W. and Albert A. Berg Collection, New York Public Library; the Hon. Mrs Clive Pearson, Parham Park, Sussex; the Ferdinand J. Dreer Collection, Historical Society of Pennsylvania; and the Royal Library, Windsor Castle.

We wish to acknowledge with gratitude the assistance of Mr Robert A. Smith of the Yale Graduate School in compiling the histories of the manuscripts. The proofs were read by Sir Owen Morshead, the late Sir Henry Hake, and Messrs Chapman, Pottle, Hazen, Millar, Bacon, Ketton-Cremer, Hilles, Knollenberg, and Wilder, all of the Advisory Committee. The proofs of the Lysons correspondences and of Appendix 3 were also read by Mr Lindsay Fleming.

Much valuable help was given us by Mr A. J. Watson of the British Museum, Miss Julia McCarthy at Farmington, and Messrs
