

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE preparation of the text and notes in this volume is largely the work of Dr Wallace; Dr Ralph M. Williams has prepared the Zouch correspondence. Their labours have been supplemented at New Haven by Dr Warren Smith who made the slips for the index, Mr Robert A. Smith who compiled the manuscript histories and verified the annotation, and by Dr Charles Bennett who prepared most of the prefatory matter and saw the book through the press.

Our first acknowledgments should be made to the owners of manuscripts printed in this volume: the British Museum; the late Roy Coventry, De Quetteville, Guernsey; the Henry W. and Albert A. Berg Collection, New York Public Library; the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Marino, California; Mr and Mrs Donald F. Hyde, Somerville, N. J.; the Hon. Mrs Clive Pearson, Parham Park, Sussex; the Simon Gratz Collection, Library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania; Mrs Edward Phelps, Glencoe, Ill.; James Tregaskis and Son; and Mrs Helen M. Williams, The Roundel, St Andrews, Fife. Our particular thanks are due the Hon. Charles Winn, Nostell Priory, Yorks, for his kindness in sending his important cache of letters to the British Museum for our use. Their appearance in this volume adds greatly to its interest.

The proofs were read by Sir Owen Morshead and Messrs Bacon, Chapman, Hazen, Ketton-Cremer, Millar, and Wilder. Mr E. H. W. Meyerstein read our Chatterton proofs and gave us help with various questions that only he could answer. Mr A. J. Watson of the Department of Manuscripts of the British Museum has once again given us every assistance in his power. The assistance of the Reference Staff of the Wayne University Library was added to that which is always rendered us by the Yale Library staff.

Students on bursary appointments from Yale College who have