

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE initial preparation of the texts and notes for the correspondences with Lady Suffolk, Lady Hervey, Lady George Lennox, Hannah More, Lady Browne, and Mrs Dickenson was done by the late Dr Bennett, and that of the correspondences with Anne Pitt and Lady Mary Coke by Dr Smith. The whole has since been rearranged and revised by Dr Smith. The annotation has been verified by Miss Emma H. E. Stephenson. The late John R. Forrest also assisted in the preparation of the manuscript histories and the initial collation of the texts.

The following institutions and private owners have kindly permitted us to print manuscripts in their possession: the Earl Bathurst; the British Museum; Mr George Fortescue, Boconnoc, Lostwithiel, Cornwall; Mr W. A. Foyle, Beeleigh Abbey, Maldon, Essex; the Henry E. Huntington Library; Dr M. G. Jones, Girton College, Cambridge; the Liverpool Public Libraries; the Pierpont Morgan Library; the National Trust; the Henry W. and Albert A. Berg Collection, New York Public Library; the Pennsylvania Historical Society; the Penzance Library, Cornwall; Mr C. P. Pigot, Woodrising, Valley Road, Ipswich, Suffolk; Somerville College, Oxford; and the Earl Waldegrave. Professor Allen T. Hazen, Mr and Mrs Donald Hyde, the McGraw-Hill Book Company, Inc., and the Yale Editorial Committee for the Boswell Papers have also kindly allowed us to quote from manuscripts in their possession in the annotation. The Earl of Leicester kindly permitted us to reproduce the wax medallion of Lady Mary Coke in his possession.

The proofs were read by Messrs Erskine, Hazen, Hilles, and Ketton-Cremer of the Advisory Committee, all of whom made valuable suggestions and additions. The proofs were also read by Dr Warren H. Smith in New Haven, who has helped at every stage in the preparation of the volume for the press. Mr Jeffrey
