

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

OUR first acknowledgment is due to the private owners and institutional custodians who have generously allowed us to publish letters in their possession; their names are gratefully recorded in the headnotes to the letters. We deeply appreciate their kindness in furnishing us with photostats or transcripts of the manuscripts.

It gives us pleasure to acknowledge our debt to past and present members of the Advisory Committee. Mr John Brooke and Professor George B. Cooper read the proof and made valuable additions to the footnotes. Dr Stephen Parks, Professor Frederick A. Pottle, and Dr Charles Ryskamp were ready sources of information and advice, as was Lady Waldegrave in questions concerning the genealogy of the Walpole family. The late Allen T. Hazen was unfailingly helpful with bibliographical problems. Other late members of the Committee who particularly assisted us in these volumes were A. N. L. Munby, Sir Lewis Namier, James M. Osborn, and Romney Sedgwick.

We wish to thank the many scholars, librarians, archivists, and others who answered our inquiries or volunteered information. Whenever possible, their contributions have been acknowledged in the headnotes. We have also to thank Mlle Annie Angremy, Mr Jack Baldwin, Professor Maurice W. Barley, Mr Alan Bell, the late Theodore Besterman, Professor Edward A. Bloom, Professor Frank Brady, Mr Andrew Brown, Dr L. Brummel, Mrs Nancy N. Coffin, Miss Winifred Collins, Miss Margaret Cooke, Dr Timothy J. Crist, the Very Rev. K. P. Cronin, C.M., Mr G. F. J. Cumberlege, Professor Bertram H. Davis, Mrs Althea Douglas, Dr David Fairer, Dr B. D. Greenslade, Professor Robert Halsband, Mr John Harris, Professor Joyce Hemlow, Mr Felix Hull, Professor Martin Kallich, Dr Mary E. Knapp, Professor
